

Donald Kirkpatrick

From: Chase <ja-lerm@t-online.de>
Sent: Saturday, February 8, 2020 8:34 AM
To: dakirkpt@verizon.net
Subject: Chase Alert: Action Required

Dear Customer,

Due to recent activities on your account, we placed a temporary suspension on your accounts.

Our fraud prevention system flagged your account due to suspicious activity and we have limited your account access to your online banking until you review your personal security details.

Please Verify Your Information Here to help protect your accounts.

Thanks for choosing Chase Bank®.

Sincerely,

Online Services Team

E-mail Security Information

Email intended for: dakirkpt@verizon.net.

If you're concerned about the authenticity of this message, please visit our fraud information page or call us using the phone number on the back of your card or account statement. If you'd like to learn more about email security or want to report a suspicious email, go to www.chase.com and search for "fraud information."