

ACTIVITIES UNLIMITED GENERAL MEETING MINUTES

December 10, 2019

- The meeting was called to order by President Joe Pullaro at 1:10 pm
- Vince Tortorelli led the Pledge of Allegiance.
- Reverend Kadzban provided the invocation.
- President Pullaro presented the annual checks to Reverend Kadzban. Gifts were also presented to Susan Fasano and Keith Moody.
- Vince Tortorelli introduced James Calaski, who presented an extremely interesting narrative on “The Nazi Spy from Glen Rock”. The presentation was enjoyed by the members and Mr. Calaski fielded many follow-up questions.
- John Caikowsky reviewed the upcoming events for Trips and Tours. January – Savini’s. February – Love is in the Air. March – Hunterdon Playhouse. April – Day trip to the Jersey shore.
- Jim Webb introduced and explained the proposed By-Law changes to Article I and the addition of item 20 to “Policies, Practices and Procedures. These proposed changes will clarify our understanding of the procedure to sell items among members utilizing the Membership List. These changes will be published in the AU Newsletter in January and February and voted upon at the March General Meeting.
- Joe Pullaro talked about our new relationship with the Wyckoff YMCA and that we will hold our February meeting at the Y.
- The attendance at today’s meeting was 71.
- Joe thanked everyone in attendance for a good year.

Respectfully submitted;

David Voehl, Secretary
