

ACTIVITIES UNLIMITED GENERAL MEETING MINUTES

September 10, 2019

- The Activities Unlimited General Meeting was called to order at 1:05 PM
- Reverend Kadzban gave the invocation and informed the meeting of the “Set of Conversations” available at the WRC on three Thursday evenings. The title of the meetings is “Do we have to talk about this”. These discussions are about end of life issues. If interested, please contact the church.
- Joe Pullaro introduced Brian Saxton as our speaker and Rhett Ellison. Brian was with the Giants in '95-'96 and then the Falcons. He currently is a Financial Analyst with Wells Fargo. Rhett is a current tight end for the Giants. Brian and Rhett gave us some very interesting information on day-to-day insights of NFL football, game day action, practice action and NFL Giants organizational background.
- Joe Pullaro explained the Board changes. That Vince Tortorelli had resigned and that Doug Cooper would become the 1st Vice President for the rest of 2019.
- Joe talked about the nominating committee for 2020.
- Doug Cooper reported about dues collection and that the financials are all ok.
- Walt Widmer reported that we now have 368 members.
- Three new members were introduced. Roy Peppard, Dick Canova and John Panagides.
- Care and Concern - Jeff Mohn reported that $15 was collected for the food pantry at the July meeting. Jeff also spoke about the passing of Jerry Bellinger and Charlie Romano. Joe Pullaro read a note from Linda Bellinger, the spouse of Jerry Bellinger.
- Don Wasson reported about Trips and Tours.
 - 9/19 –AU Social, 6PM to 9PM.
 - 10/8 – AU Breakfast
 - 10/21 – Taste of the Big Apple
