

ACTIVITIES UNLIMITED GENERAL MEETING MINUTES

TUESDAY, JULY 17, 2018

- The meeting was called to order by President Jim Webb at 1:00 PM.
- The Pledge of Allegiance was led by retired air force veteran Howard Vogel.
- Former president, Tom Butler, asked for a moment of silence for AU members who have passed; he also said a few words of encouragement to everyone.
- Joe Pullaro introduced the guest speaker, Al Doblin, who gave a presentation on social media as well as what was his approach and feelings while working as a writer for the Record. He opened the floor to the membership and responded to all questions in a very professional manner. I believe his presentation was well received.
- There will be a change of personnel on the board; jim Webb is forming a nominating committee to make recommendations to the board
- Jim Webb thanked the clubs for their exhibits at our general meetings.
- Jim Webb reported that the Hobbyists were not really interested in joining with us on future activities; Jim will continue working with the Hobbyists to see if we can do some things together.
- The treasurer's report stated all was good with AU funds. Not much activity in the summer.
- There were no suggestions in the "suggestion Box".
- Lou Guarneri will be stepping down as Chairman of Trip and Tours; John Caikowsky will be replacing Lou as chairman.
- There will be a coordination committee meeting at 12:00 PM on September 11, 2018. It will be held in the rear of the auditorium.
- George Lewis advised all that AU shirts are available. See George after the meeting for more information.
- The meeting adjourned at 2:35 PM.

Respectfully submitted

Howard Vogel, Secretary
